Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

THURSDAY May 18, 1738.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Houſe of Commons to the KING.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return our moſt humble and grateful Thanks for Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

To ſpeak our utmoſt Senſe of the great Loſs Your Majeſty and theſe Kingdoms have lately ſuſtained, would be to revive and aggravate, what we wiſh to alleviate and diſpel; but we hope Your Majeſty will pardon the Intruſion of our ſincere Condolcance, when You reflect on the double Duty, by which we are bound, as affectionate Subjects to Your Majeſty, and as Repreſentatives of the People of Great Britain, not to paſs over in Silence this Object of Your Diſtreſs and their univerſal Mourning.

When we reflect on the amiable private Character of that great Princeſs, on Her perſonal and domeſtick Merit, as an indulgent and inſtructive Parent, a mild and gracious Miſtreſs; or, with regard to Your Majeſty, as uniting in one all the different Characters of the moſt pleaſing as well as conſtant Companion; the moſt able as well as the moſt faithful Friend; the moſt tender as well as the moſt obſervant Wife; when we reflect on theſe Circumſtances, we mourn Her Loſs, as the greateſt, with which Your Majeſty and Your Royal Houſe could have been afflicted: But when we turn our Thoughts to Her great and publick Virtues, Her Love of Juſtice, Her Attachment to the Laws and Principles of this wiſe and happy Conſtitution, Her extenſive Charities, Her boundleſs Benevolence, Her Succour to Diſtreſs, Her Favour to Merit, Her Lenity to all; when we conſider theſe Parts of Her high Character, it is no longer for particular and perſonal Cauſes that we grieve; it is a National Loſs we lament.

If a due Submiſſion to ſuperior Authority, and a due Exerciſe of Power, when committed to Her Hands, are the ſtrongeſt Marks of Excellence in both Parts of Government; and if theſe juſtly claim Praiſe and Admiration, how can we ſufficiently praiſe or admire Her Conduct, either in the Preſence or Abſence of Your Majeſty? In the firſt, we ſaw the moſt conſtant Compliance with Your Will; in the laſt, the true Repreſentation of Him, with whoſe delegated Authority She was veſted; for all Her Acts were great, and wiſe, and good; Alternately we beheld Her Submiſſion in this Character, and felt Her Mildneſs in the other; and great as the Diſtance may ſeem from Commanding to Subjection, the Tranſition to Her was eaſy, whoſe Abilities were equal to any Situation, and whoſe Temper could conform to all; as reſigned to the Duties of a Queen Conſort, as capable of the High Office of Guardian of the Realm; as ready to ſubmit, as able to command, and equally an Example to all Sovereigns, when She ruled, and to all Subjects when She obeyed.

And though Your Majeſty's juſt and great Concern on this Occaſion would perhaps receive no Extenuation from the Comfort Your Faithful Commons might vainly try to adminiſter; yet that nothing may be wanting on our Parts, which may contribute to the making Your Majeſty's Government (the Source of our Proſperity) as eaſy to Your ſelf, as is has ever been to Your Subjects; we do aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will not only carefully avoid all Heats and Animoſities, but will with the greateſt Readineſs, effectually raiſe the Supplies neceſſary for the Service of the current Year, and, with a Zeal and Affection becoming the Repreſentatives of a grateful People, make all neceſſary Proviſions for the Honour, Peace and Security of your Crown and Kingdoms; demonſtrating to all the World, that the Support of Your Majeſty's Government, and the Publick Safety, are conſtantly our Care, and that we deſire nothing more than the Preſervation of our wiſe and excellent Conſtitution in the ſame happy, firm, and envied Situation, in which it was delivered down to us from our Anceſtors and Your Majeſty's great Predeceſſors.

But whilſt by theſe Means we endeavour to prevent any Additional Diſquiet from approaching Your Royal Perſon, we muſt beg Leave to lay again before Your Majeſty the anxious Grief of Your whole People, together with their humble and moſt earneſt Wiſhes, that Your Majeſty's known Reſolution may aid Time, in alleviating Your Sorrow for that Loſs, which nothing can repair, and in reſtoring to Your Majeſty that Tranquillity of Mind, which can alone free us from the moſt ſolicitous Fears for a Life, on which the Happineſs of Your Royal Family, and of this afflicted Nation, ſo immediately depends.

LONDON, January 3.

The Report ſpread ſome Days ago that the Right Hon. John Dalrymple Earl and Viſcount of Stair, &c. was dead, is entirely falſe, he being in a tolerable State of Health at his Seat in Scotland.

Jan. 26 We are informed, that the Eaſt-India Company have taken ſuch Meaſures, that Angria the Pyrate will not be able to diſtreſs them in any Shape whatever.

We hear that to morrow the Garland Man of War will be put into Commiſſion, the Command given to Capt. Price, and the Ship is to be ſtationed at New York.

And at the ſame Time we hear, that the Hector Man of War will be put into Commiſſion, the Command given to Sir Yelverton Payton, Bart. and to be ſtationed at Virginia.

Febr 2. They write from Vienna, that notwithſtanding the Appearance of a Peace, which is likely to be concluded between the Imperialiſts and the Turks, there is little reaſon to doubt of another Campaign: And that therefore the Deſign is, that one Perſon only ſhall have the Care of providing Subſiſtence for the Troops in Hungary and elſewhere, as alſo Carriages, Ammunition, Hoſpitals, &c. 'Tis ſaid, that Don John Baptiſte de Portugal will have this conſiderable Truſt, as alſo that of the Paſſports and Contributions, together with the Care of ſettling a Cartel with the Turks; that is, the Terms and Method of ranſoming Officers and Soldiers taken Priſoners on either Side, as is practiſed by exchanging one againſt the other among the Chriſtian Powers when engag'd in War. By this Means a great Number of Officers and Soldiers will be retriev'd from Bondage, they being immediately to be ranſom'd for a Month's Pay on both Sides. 'Tis ſaid that Don John de Caſtillo will ſend for 40 Perſons out of the Netherlands to aſſiſt him in the Execution of this great Undertaking, ſuch as he has made uſe of when employ'd in Affairs of the ſame Nature for 40 Years paſt.

The Edict whereby the Emperor hath eſtabliſhed a general Tax in his hereditary Dominions to maintain the War againſt the Turks, has been lately publiſh'd with the uſual Ceremonies. The Council of War has juſt iſſued freſh Orders to all the Officers to repair to their Regiments before the middle of March, under Pain of being caſhier'd; and it's aſſur'd that the Troops will before the End of that Month march towards Belgrade, where the general Rendezvous is to be. The Grand Duke of Tuſcany, and moſt of the General Officers, will ſet out for the Army in April, ſo that in all likelihood the Campaign will begin very early. Advices from the Frontiers ſay, that the Infidels ſeem diſpos'd likewiſe to come into the Field early, and that they are making extraordinary Preparations for that Purpoſe.

Count Seckendorff's Affairs are pretty much in the ſame State as they have been for ſome Time. It's certain, that the Certificates which have been ſent from thoſe Perſons who had the Direction of Proviſions in Servia, have been very favourable to him, and have utterly deſtroy'd the Report of his having applied great Part thereof to his own Advantage. The Emperor has tranſmitted the Sentence that the Council of War pronounc'd againſt Major General Doxat to Belgrade, the Contents of which are not certainly known; tho' it's ſaid, that his Imperial Majeſty has moderated it, only obliging him to quit his Employments, and retire from the hereditary Dominions.

They write from Madrid, that there have been very univerſal and ſplendid Rejoicings for three Days together, on account of the Marriage of the King of the Two Sicilies with the Princeſs Royal of Poland; and that Farinelli ſang a fine Italian Piece of his own compoſing at the Opera upon that Occaſion.

From Amſterdam, that it's now publickly talk'd, that the Ottoman Porte hath accepted the Mediation of France, in Conjunction with Great-Britain and Holland; provided that the Treaty of Paſſarowitz may ſerve for a Baſis to the future Negociations of Peace between the Emperor and his Highneſs. The Porte is likewiſe inclinable to conclude a Peace with Ruſſia, on Condition that this Court will be content with the Town of Aſoph. But thoſe who thus publiſh this News don't ſeem to be thoroughly in the Secret of Affairs, ſince it's very certain, that one ought not in this Caſe barely to ſay, that the Grand Signior hath accepted the Mediation, but likewiſe that, he, as in truth he did, deſired his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to offer his Mediation, addreſſing himſelf to the French Court, rather than to any other, for two Reaſons; the firſt of which was plainly becauſe his ſublime Highneſs was aſſured, that the Crown of France being greatly irritated againſt the Court of Ruſſia, would not be partial in its Favour; the other ſeems to be as obvious, and was, that the Court of France having at preſent ſo great an Influence at Vienna, ſhe might poſſibly be tempted to engage the Emperor to make a ſeparate Peace; for which on the one ſide ſhe would merit greatly from the Porte, and at the ſame Time on the other would have a fair Opportunity of gratifying her particular Reſentment againſt Ruſſia.

Febr. 4. It was yeſterday ſtrongly reported at Change, that the Spaniards had taken four Engliſh Ships and two Dutch Ships, and condemn'd them as lawful Prizes.

Letters from Carthagena in New-Spain of the 9th of November laſt, N.S. by way of Jamaica, mention, that two Dutch Ships had been brought in there, one having 40,000 Pieces of Eight on board, and the other 6000; and that the Spaniards were in purſuit of ſome other Dutch Ships that were trading on that Coaſt.

They write from Madrid, that the Court has cauſed a Squadrons to be equipped at Cadiz, conſiſting of ſix Men of War each, which are to be commanded by the Admirals Spinola and Guiſtiniani, and to ſail to the Weſt-Indies, if certain Negociations now carrying on have the wiſh'd for Succeſs.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Col. Horſey, to be Governor of South-Carolina, in the room of Robert Johnſon Eſq; deceaſed.

And to appoint the Right Hon. the Earl of Granard, Governor of New York, in the room of Col. Cosby ſome time ſince deceaſed.

On Saturday was a great Council at the Cockpit on extraordinary Affairs.

We hear that a Draught of 600 Men will be made from ſeveral marching Regiments, in order to go for Georgia.

On Friday there was a general Meeting of the Merchants trading to America, at the Ship behind the Exchange, to receive the Report from the Committee appointed at the laſt General Meeting, and adjourn'd for three Weeks, and then to take into Conſideration, about applying to Parliament to have Redreſs from the Spaniards for taking the Merchants Ships.

Sunday there was a Report in Town of the Pope's Death.

We hear that Mr. Gilbert Higginſon, late an eminent Tobacco Merchant in Philpot-Lane, is appointed Collector of the Cuſtoms, and Surveyor at Charleſtown South-Carolina; for which Country he intends to ſet out in a ſhort time, in order to take Poſſeſſion of his ſaid Poſt.

It was yeſterday confidently reported, that there were Letters in Town giving an Account, that ſome Dutch Men of War had attacked 3 Spaniſh Guarda Coſtas, and after an obſtinate Fight had ſunk them all, for the repeated Injuries done to the Dutch Trade. It was alſo ſaid, that the Spaniſh Miniſter in Holland has Orders to demand immediate Satisfaction for the ſaid Damage.

On Thurſday Commodore Brown ſet out for Spithead, in order to embark on board the Hampton Court, which is ſail'd round to that Place, in order to ſail for the Weſt-Indies, to relieve the Ships there, he having received his Inſtructions from the Lords of the Admiralty, and took leave of their Lordſhips.

The Earl of Granard, with his Family will embark for his Government of New-York, the beginning of May: His Lordſhip is to have the Command of two independent Companies of Foot in that Colony.

Febr. 14. On Saturday laſt the Hearing before the Committee of Council ended, between the Truſtees for eſtabliſhing the Colony of Georgia in America, in Defence of the Act for maintaining the Peace with the Indians of that Province, and the People of Carolina, who oppos'd the Execution of that Act. And we hear that the poor People of Georgia had the better.
